WASN'T HIS FAULT.

Senator McPherson Tried to Quit Buying Sugar Stock,But His Explanation is Received With Laughter.

NOTHING TOO MEAN.

People Are Prepared to Believe Anything Now.WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—[Special.]— It was a great day for the galleries when the senate finally got down to something like test voting. The diplomatic and ladies' galleries were empty, but all the others were filled, even the reporters' gallery being crowded. There was a better attendance of senators than for many days, and the attention was so close that in the brief pauses between remarks the silence was sometimes almost painful. The preliminary sparring would occasionally produce a light ripple of laughter, and in rare instances conversation in the galleries would create a hum, but if any of the leading senators was up it would instantly cease, and when the calling of the roll began every head was stretched forward and every ear strained.As had been expected, Mr. Peffer voted steadily with the Republicans and Messrs.
Kyle and Allen generally with the Democrats, but two of the amendments offered were so skillfully framed to catch the Populists that the class, as the names of Hill and Irby were called there was a general appearance of strained anxiety, and when Mr. Hill passed one call without voting there was an instant buzz and general shaking of heads. Strange to say, the fact that Mr. Stewart failed to vote on the same call attracted no particular attention. It is evidently taken for granted by the public that the senator from Nevada is thoroughly discredited.

In an Ugly Mood.

Under ordinary circumstances the signs of ill nature with which the debate began would have delighted the galleries, but they were too impatient for the vote. The New York and New Jersey bridge bill was passed with scarcely a sign of interest and a few other measures of similar character, the audience growing every minute more impatient for the great battle on sugar. At the very start it was apparent that two or three senators had received the advance information as to what the testimony before the investigation committee was likely to be.
One or two contented themselves with dark and mysterious hints that something awful would soon be revealed, but Mr.
Chandler, who was in an unusually irritable mood, broke forth in a series of heat, saying:
"I believe that senators have speculated in sugar stock, and I hope that we will not have final action on this bill until the committee charged with the investigation of all these scandalous rumors completes its work. It is due to the senate and the country, no matter what votes are cast today, not to act upon this bill until the com-tee headed by the able and upright senator from Delaware (Mr. Gray) shall have completed its investigation of the length, breadth, height and depth of all the assertions cast upon the senate in connection with the influence of the Sugar trust."

Charges and Denials.

Of course there was a sensation, but in a few minutes there was a bigger one. Mr.
Vest had charged and Mr. Aldrich had denied in a previous discussion that there was speculation in sugar stock while the McKinley bill was pending. Mr. Aldrich now renewed the discussion by declaring that there were no great fluctuations in the stock in 1890. "It went up 35 cents," said Mr. Vest, "in three weeks." There were then the same lies, the same fabrications, the same attacks on public men as during the consideration of the pending bill.
Mr. Sherman came to the rescue of his neighbor and declared that the Sugar trust of 1890 amounted to very little, when up-popped Mr. Bruce, with an aggressive suddenness quite unusual for him, and said:
"The capital of the trust in 1890 was $50,000, and the stock went up from 63 to 95.
The holder's net is $30,000,000 after the representatives of the Sugar trust had made their agreement with the trust who controlled the bill." All this, though it put the senate into as near a frenzy as it ever gets, did not interest the occupants of the galleries three minutes, so anxious were they for the test vote. The first one resulted 38 to 31, and so it was plain that party lines were practically unbroken. On taking details, suffice it to say that the finance committee was sustained throughout, the net result of the whole day being to make the position of Mr. Peffer as an opponent of the bill almost, if not quite, a certainty.

The Iniquitous Sugar Trust.

The strain being over, the interested spectators rushed for the latest news from the committee of investigation, and after getting it the two great questions discussed were: "Was Carlisle worked?" and "How does McPherson's explanation compare with that of Colfax on the Credit Mobilier?" Down to date the tendency seems to be to answer the first question affirmatively. Of course none of the bankers' partisan in Washington imagine that the secretary was ever corruptly influenced, but many believe that the ingenious sugar men found him so anxious to be fair, so very anxious to avoid the appearance of rashness or injustice, that they made his mood serve their purpose. There is nothing too mean to be believed here in regard to the Sugar trust.
As to Senator McPherson, his statement that he was trying hard to quit buying sugar stock and that his son and a careless servant managed to buy more in spite of him was received at first with astonishment, next with derisive laughter and now promises to become one of the best stock jokes of the season. Like the various other stories told in the days of Credit Mobilier and the great whisky trials.There is trouble enough for many other people just now, for if the coal miners do not let up pretty soon navigation will cease on the Potomac, and street cars and many other important conveniences will be in a fix. The sugar continues to rush business, and the committees of the senate have recently made great progress in preparing house bills for rapid passage through the senate. The friends of the applying territories have formed a new combination, and the committee gives assurances that New Mexico can pass the house and that there is still a chance for it, with Utah and Arizona, to get through the senate. General Wheeler, chairman of the committee, says he does not see how the differences about Oklahoma can be reconciled so as to give it a good show, but Republicans declare that it must keep even pace with New Mexico and that if one is refused the other will be.

REPUBLICANS QUIT.

They Will Make No Nominations in Virginia This Year.WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Virginia Republican committee, representing the different congressional districts of the state, in a session here, has adopted, though not unanimously, a resolution stating that the committee deems it unwise to call congressional conventions for the purpose of making Republican congressional nominations in Virginia for the autumn election.The resolution expressly states, however, that the committee has no intention of attempting to prevent any person from running for office, or any people from nominating a representative if they feel disposed to do so.Ex-Senator Mahone says that this attitude of the Republicans of his state is the natural outcome of existing affairs, and for his part, he will not cast another ballot under the present circumstances.

JOINING BY THOUSANDS.

Railway Union Said to Be Growing at the Rate of 2,000 a Day.CHICAGO, June 12.—Four hundred and fifty delegates were in their seats when the first quadrennial convention of the American Railway union was called to order here today in Uhrigs hall, by President Eugene V. Debs.Vice President Howard opened the proceedings with a brief address, reviewing the success of the organization from the start. He said that a convention of this kind has never been held in America before under one banner, with one object. "We are bound to succeed. We are today gaining members at the rate of 2,000 per day."President Debs' speech was enthusiastically received by the delegates. He attacked the Carnegies, Fricks and Geo.
M. Pullman, charging them with hypocrisy and pharisaical fraud. Their business, he declared, was to rob and to degrade working men and women.The convention will, he announced, consider the Pullman strike.

THE COURT HOUSE LOTS.

Judge Hazen Enjoins Further Action by the County Commissioners.A temporary restraining order has been granted by Judge Hazen in the district court which prevents further action towards taking possession of the lots on Van Buren street adjoining the court house site, owned by Mrs. Helen Shaffer and Charles Jockheck. The arguments in the case will be heard next Saturday.The petition in the case asks for the injunction on the ground that the law by which the property was condemned is unconstitutional; or if constitutional proper notice was not given to the owners. The owners wanted $10,000 for the three lots, but the appraisers only allowed $3,000 per lot.It is thought that the restraining order will not retard the work on the court house. Work would not begin on the lots until next week.

WEISSERT IS HURT.

The Prominent G. A. R. Man Dislocated
His Shoulder.MILWAUKEE, June 12.—Col. A. C.
Weissert, past commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. in Wisconsin, was seriously hurt his residence last evening. In stepping from a bath tub his feet slipped and he fell heavily to the floor. The fall resulted in the dislocation of one shoulder and several painful bruises on the body.Colonel Weissert suffers almost constantly from an open wound received during the war, as a result of which he is not sure of foot.

PRENDERGAST CASE.

It Seems to Be Tangled Up Legally Worse Than Ever.CHICAGO, June 12.—The Prendergast case is liable to become more complicated still. The defense now claims that as the state took no action of record yesterday when the case was called, it defaulted.Attorney Heron, of the defense, has announced his intention to file Prendergast before some judge sitting in the criminal court and ask for an order of commitment.

THE FAKE WRITER.

Boss With Name of the Commander of the Cripple Creekers.CRIPPLE CREEK, June 12.—Jack Smith, military leader of the strikers on Bull Hill, has gone to Mexico to avoid arrest. It is now known that the story that June J. Johnson, a West Pointer, was in command on Bull Hill, was a myth. Johnson was merely another name for Smith.

A STRAIGHT TICKET.

New York City Republicans Will Name Their Own Candidates.NEW YORK, June 12.—At a meeting last night of the Republican county committee, it was decided to nominate a straight ticket in the coming municipal campaign.A resolution was adopted asking all organizations in favor of good government, to wait for the action of the Republican county convention "before taking steps that might endanger the success of municipal reform." ago, 5,500 people were carried.

NEWS OF KANSAS.

"Gen." Sanders' Case is Called for Trial Today.A Number of His Men Locked Up in Jail.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

Two Women Narrowly Escape
Drowning at Wichita.LEAVENWORTH, June 12.—"General" John Sherman Sanders went before United States Attorney W. C. Perry and made a formal demand for a trial. He said he was sorely tired of the way things are going and desired to have the charges against himself and men settled one way or another.Mr. Perry and Sanders went before Judge Thomas and the judge asked:

"Have you an attorney?"

"I have."

"Who is he?"

"Mr. Waters of Topeka."

"Is he present?"

"He is not here now, but I can have him here Wednesday."Clerk Sharitt then stated to the judge that Col. Waters was not in Topeka and could not come here in so short a time.Judge Thomas repeated this information to Sanders and told him he had better get another attorney.The judge then announced that the case would be taken up today in order that the preliminaries may be disposed of. Judge Thomas did not know whether this court has jurisdiction and desires to be informed on the question.Ten or a dozen of "Gen." Sanders' men are locked up in the county jail by order of the United States marshal. Among them are Adjutant Gen. Connel, Capt.
Crumley and a sergeant. Connel is the handsome man of the outfit with Paderewski hair.They were taken to jail because they grew too demonstrative in camp and wanted to kick up trouble. It is stated further that within a short time the entire "army" will be in the jails of the state, it being argued that is the best way to hold them till the time of trial next September.

ago. The circumstances as related by Mr. Norris are as follows: Gail made a number of sales to farmers in this coun-and obtained part of his commission in advance. The fraud was discovered by "fealers" sent out by the nurserymen at Ottawa and Mr. Norris had him arrested.

Gail is in jail awaiting his preliminary.

DICKINSON COUNTY WHEAT.

Harvest Will Commence This Week—Out and Average Yield.ABILENE, June 12.—Farmers expect to commence harvest this week as the wheat in east Dickinson is nearly ready for the machine.There will be a great diversity in the yield of wheat in the county. In some sections the crop will be heavy, in others it is so unpromising that the grain has been mowed for hay. On the whole a fair average yield is looked for and will probably be garnered.

ASKING FOR PARDON.

Thief Circulating at Abilene.ABILENE, June 12.—A petition is in circulation asking for the release from the penitentiary of Abram Huntzberger of South Dickinson, who in March, 1892, pleaded guilty to burglary in stealing wheat from Samuel Landis and was sentenced for five years.The prison officials say that he has been one of the institution's best behaved inmates and think he deserves release.
Mr. Landis, the complaining witness, also signs the petition.

never been known to be so high as it is now, in safety but when they attempted to cross it though they came very near being drowned.The buggy went nearly under and the horses could not swim, but Mrs. Lyons' son Ed, who lives near by, heard the cries of the terrified ladies, swam out to them, and by heroic and hard work, saved them. He then cut the horses loose from the buggy and succeeded in getting them to shore.

SONS OF TOIL.

Their Leaders Prepare for Two Great Annual Meetings.St. Louis, June 12.—The committee on resolutions of conference in session here of the leaders of the American Federation of Labor, Knights of Labor, Locomotive Engineers, Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railway conductors and Farmers Alliance was late in completing its work and as a result today's session did not begin until nearly noon and then behind closed doors.It took up considerable time in committee reports which consisted of six sections. When adjournment was taken, the first two sections had been agreed to, as adopted. These read:First.—A conference of representatives of organized labor of North America shall be held semi-annually, the first conference to be held February 22, 1895, in the city of Washington, D. C., for the purpose of considering questions and advising plans for the protection and advancement of the toiling masses.Second.—The representation in such conferences shall be from the general assembly of the knights of labor, the American federation of labor, the various brotherhoods, the orders of railway trainmen, and such national and international organizations of wage workers and farmers as are not affiliated with any of the before named organizations.
Provided, any such national or international organization is not organized to antagonize or to undermine existing bona fide unions of the same trade or calling.

Great Majority.CHICAGO, June 12.—The Sunday closing ordinance was passed by the city council last night. It received sixty-six ness within the city of Chicago, any or exposing for sale any clothes, dry goods, hats, caps, furnishing goods, jew-ticles, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday.This ordinance shall not be held to on Sunday up to the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each Sunday during the months of June, July, August and Sept., of each year.Barber shops are required to be closed

PEPPER FOR A DUTY.

Offers Amendment Restoring McKimley Bill Schedule in Some Features.WASHINGTON, June 12.—The consideration of schedule "K" wool and manufactures of wool, of the tariff bill, which was reached when the senate adjourned last night, was taken up in the senate this morning.Mr. Peffer offered an amendment transferring the wool, hair of the camel, goats, alpaca and other like animal on the free list in the bill to the dutiable list, restoring the McKinley bill classification, but scaling down the rates practically one-half.After Mr. Peffer had offered his amendment, under an agreement made yesterday, the senate voted back to paragraph 18, imposing a duty of 40 per cent on spectacles, goggles, opera glasses and other optical instruments which was passed over at the request of Mr. Hoar.Mr. Hoar moved to increase the rate to 60 per cent, (the present rate) and took the floor in advocacy of his amendment.

The Editors' Case.

In Justice Furry's court today W. N.
Pope, editor of the "Call," charged with assault and battery, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the district court. He gave bond in the sum of $800 for his appearance at the next term. W. D. Driver, editor of the "Blackman," is the complaining witness. He alleges that Editor Pope drew a revolver on him on Kansas avenue and ordered him to get out of town. The trouble grew out of the existing rivalry between the two papers.Read the "Wants." Many of them are as interesting as news items. See if it is not so.

TODAY'S MARKET REPORT.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The dry weather, the higher cables and the partial settlement of the coal strike sent all markets up with a whirl today, when leading the advance at a rattling pace.
July opened 1 1/2c higher at 61 1/2c, lost 3/4c, advanced 3/4c, and reacted to the opening price. The trading was very heavy.Corn followed wheat. July opened 1c higher at 42, lost 1/2c, advanced 1/2c, and reacted to 41 1/2c.Oats strong; July 39c.
Provisions were in sympathy with wheat and light hog receipts. July pork opened 20 cents higher at $12.30
